

Kokanee Canary Canoe

By Ross Douglass, transposed to Key of C for play on C-tuned Ukulele

C G7 C F Fm
 Hey don't you brood if your mood is a sourin'
 C A7 D7 G7
 Come to the bow-ron its waiting for you
 C G7 C F Fm
 There 'neath the moon, you will soon stop your glowerin
 C A7 D7 G7 C
 I'll take you out in my Kokanee Canary Canoe

Am7 E7 Am7 E7
 There in the night when the bugs start to bite
 C D7 G7
 We'll just think 'bout the birds and the bees
 C G7 C F Fm
 There on the lake we'll partake in the woo
 C A7 D7 G7 C
 When I'm with you in my Kokanee Canary Canoe

C G7 C F Fm
 Far from the hustle and bustle we'll glide away
 C A7 D7 G7
 Into the evening out under the stars
 C G7 C F Fm
 We'll find the dance of romance in our hide-away
 D7 G7 C
 Soon very soon very soon

Am7 E7 Am7 E7
 Just you and I in the deep purple sky
 C D7 G7
 As we ponder the wonders of love
 C G7 C F Fm
 Ah it will seem like a dream has come true
 C A7 D7 G7 C
 When I'm with you in my Kokanee Canary Canoe

C G7 C F
 We can skee-dadle and paddle and ooooo
 C A7 D7 G7 C
 Plenty of things in my Kokanee Canary Canoe
 C A7 D7 G7 C
 Plenty of things in my Kokanee Canary Canoe
 C A7 D7 G7
 Plenty of things in my Kokanee Canary
 D7 G7 D7 G7 C
 We'll be makin' merry Kokanee Canary Canoe

This song is played by Ross Douglas on a Uke tuned in A-D-F#-B so for it to be easier on standard tuning it was transposed to The key of C for a standard Ukulele making it easier to play and easier to sing. This is open for corrections, please don't be shy to point out any errors.
