

Sudbury Saturday Night

Stompin' Tom Connors 1967

INTRO: / 1 2 / 1 2 / [D] / [D] / [D] / [D]

CHORUS:

Ah, the [D] girls are out to bingo and the [G] boys are gettin' stinko
We [D] think no more of Inco on a Sudbury Saturday [A7] night [A7]
The [D] glasses they will tinkle when our [G] eyes begin to twinkle
And we'll [D] think no more of Inco on a [A7] Sudbury Saturday [D] night [D]

With [D] Irish Jim O'Connell there and [G] Scotty Jack MacDonald
There's [D] honky Frederick Hurchell gettin' [A7] tight, but that's alright
There's [D] happy German Fritzy there with [G] Frenchy getting tipsy
And [D] even Joe the Gypsy knows she's [A7] Saturday to-[D]night [D]

Now when [D] Mary Ann and Mable come to [G] join us at the table
And [D] tell us how the bingo went to-[A7]night, we'll look a fright
But [D] if they won the money, we'll be [G] lappin' up the honey, boys
'Cause [D] everything is funny, for she's [A7] Saturday to-[D]night [D]

CHORUS:

Yeah the [D] girls are out to bingo and the [G] boys are gettin' stinko
We [D] think no more of Inco on a Sudbury Saturday [A7] night [A7]
The [D] glasses they will tinkle when our [G] eyes begin to twinkle
And we'll [D] think no more of Inco on a [A7] Sudbury Saturday [D] night [D]

INSTRUMENTAL CHORUS:

The [D] girls are out to bingo and the [G] boys are gettin' stinko
We [D] think no more of Inco on a Sudbury Saturday [A7] night [A7]
The [D] glasses they will tinkle when our [G] eyes begin to twinkle
And we'll [D] think no more of Inco on a [A7] Sudbury Saturday [D] night [D]

We'll [D] drink the loot we borrowed and re-[G]cuperate tomorrow
'Cause [D] everything is wonderful to-[A7]night, we had a good fight
We [D] ate the deli pickle and we for-[G]got about the nickel
And [D] everybody's tickled, for she's [A7] Saturday to-[D]night [D]

The [D] songs that we'll be singing, they might be [G] wrong but they'll be ringing
When [D] all the lights of town are shining [A7] bright, and we're all tight
We'll [D] get to work on Monday, but to-[G]morrow's only Sunday
And we're [D] out to have a fun day for she's [A7] Saturday to-[D]night [D]

CHORUS:

Yeah, the [D] girls are out to bingo and the [G] boys are gettin' stinko
We [D] think no more of Inco on a Sudbury Saturday [A7] night [A7]
The [D] glasses they will tinkle when our [G] eyes begin to twinkle
And we [D] think no more of Inco on a [A7] Sudbury Saturday [D] night
We [G] think no more of [D] Inco on a [A7] Sudbury Saturday [D]↓ night [D]↓

